

2019 White Label Rosé

The Alkoomi vineyards and winery are located in the Frankland River district of Western Australia's Great Southern wine region. The name is taken from local aboriginal dialect and means 'a place we chose' and the logo represents the unique and distinctively Australian Grass tree, Xanthorrhoea preissii. The first plantings were in 1971 and the region's long, cool ripening conditions are perfect for growing fruit of intense varietal character.

Winemaking

2019 was made from Shiraz harvested in the early morning hours. The fruit was destemmed and crushed into the press and immediately drained to tank in order to attain the desired colour and flavour profile. After cold settling and fermentation, the wine was left on yeast lees for 8 weeks before bottling.

Vintage

Excellent growing conditions were cut short due to a late frost event which resulted in a considerable reduction in yield.

Colour

Brilliant pale salmon pink with hues of onion skin.

Nose

White cherries with layers of earthiness and spice.

Palate

Flavours of blood orange, carried by a savoury textural mouthfeel with a clean bright acidity.

Cellaring
